ADVENTURES IN HORSEBACK RIDING 1995

Ride Ontario! What better way to add an hour or more of relaxing exercise and fresh country air to your vacation routine than by taking a daily horseback ride?

Does getting away from roads and traffic for a few days of trail riding and overnight campouts sound like the ideal way to unwind at the start of your vacation? Or perhaps this is the change you're looking for when a busy schedule only leaves time for a mini-break.

Ride through the wilderness beauty of Manitoulin Island on Georgian Bay in Rainbow Country - the stars are brighter than any city's lights. Catch the ferry from Tobermory or travel east of Georgian Bay through Parry Sound to Little Current.

Visitors to the Golden Horseshoe, travelling around the western end of Lake Ontario from Niagara to Toronto, can find both overnight and trail riding packages in nearby Milton and Oakville in Travel Area 2, Festival Country.

Trail rides can be found just to the north and the west of Toronto in Richmond Hill and Clarendon, both in Getaway Country. Other packages in this region include lodge-based trail rides, 2- and 3-day campouts in the Haliburton Highlands, and rides through Petroglyphs Provincial Park.

In Ontario East, explore the Ottawa Valley on horseback or enjoy a breakaway weekend on a century farm.

A choice of stables is available in the Lakelands region. Features offered in this popular resort area include trails through the Muskoka woods or scenic Beaver Valley.

Further north, the rugged scenery, untouched beauty and wildlife above Georgian Bay and Lakes Huron and Superior seem even more breathtaking when viewed from the saddle.

If you are in an area not covered by the listings in this guide, visit a local travel information centre and ask for information about horseback riding in the area, or call the local riding club or stables.

Many trail rides can be tailored to the experience of the rider and are usually available throughout the day. Some operators even offer romantic moonlight rides. So wherever you're staying, at a resort or camping out in a provincial park, you can usually arrange a memorable riding experience.
